1. The airfield was 4 km north of Sumy (34°47'E/50°54'N), Ukrainian SSR, about 400 meters east of a road running south. The field had no runway or other installations. Its landing field was a meadow.

2. A four-story brick building was NW of the airfield.

3. Three Ju-52s, six IL-2s, and 15 biplanes were stationed at the field.

4. There was much flying, take-offs, landings, and formation flying being practiced.

This is the first information on the Sumy airfield. Report requires confirmation. A pilot school for initial training is probably located there.
